The Anthology

of the musical legacy on vinyl of the Fab Four from Liverpool

DEAR FRIEND!

These two tomes herald the beginning of the release of a series of books collectively known as »The Anthology of the Beatles Records – Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow and Always«.

We hope very much that our work will be of interest, not just to genuine collectors of Beatles records, but also to all fans of the musical legacy of the Fab Four from Liverpool.

We would like to point out in particular that, in putting together this book, we saw our task as two-fold: not just the simple enumeration of the Beatles' vinyl records released in various parts of the world, but also an account of the vinyl legacy of the Fab Four to reflect – as far as possible – the extraordinary spirits of the phenomenon known as »Beatlemania«, the spirits of the Sixties.

Turn the pages of this book and immerse yourself in the mood of the time – a time when the story of pop music was born, and a time that saw the emergence of four ordinary yet talented lads from Liverpool – John, Paul, George, Ringo.

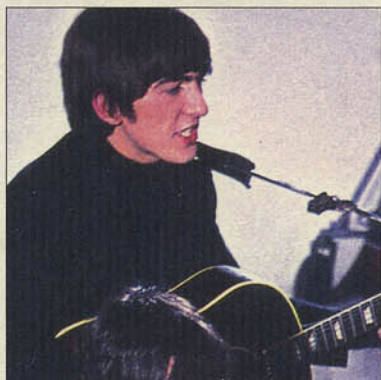

The Beatles Forever!

1. Can’t Buy Me Love Lennon/McCartney

2. I Want To Hold Your Hand Lennon/McCartney

SIDE 2

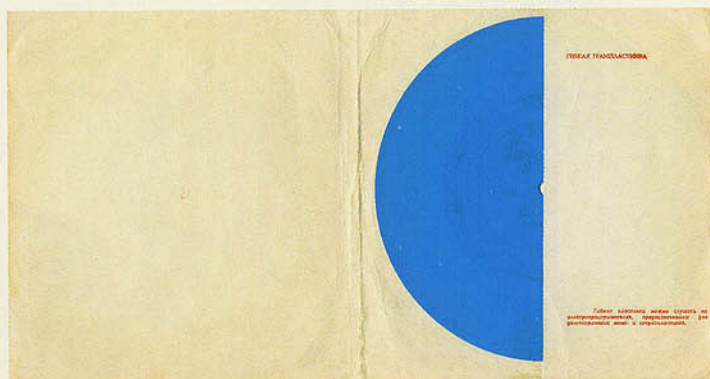

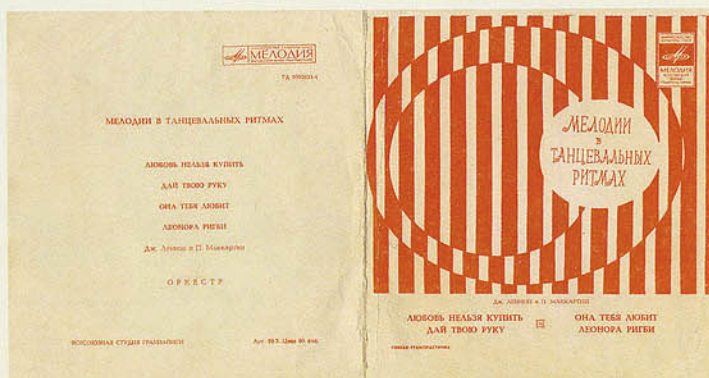

1. She Loves You Lennon/McCartney

2. Eleanor Rigby Lennon/McCartney

We have included this record in the Russian discography of the Beatles, although the artists recorded on it are not the Beatles. As far as we know, the first information about this record appeared in a book by an East German researcher into the works of the Beatles, Schmidel.

Also it was discovered by creators of the internet site <http://beatlesvinyl.org.ua> (Vadim Legkokonets, Andrej Lukanin and Valentin Isaikin) that Can’t Buy Me Love / I Want To Hold Your Hand / She Loves You / Eleanor Rigby (with tracks listed in Russian as Любовь нельзя купить / Дай твою руку // Она тебя любит / Леонора Ригби) 7" flexi EP does exist and was released under Melodiya’s ГД-0002833-34 catalogue number – G. Schmiedel made a one-digit mistake in the catalogue number. This 7" flexi EP is entitled МЕЛОДИИ В ТАНЦЕВАЛЬНЫХ РИТМАХ (in English: MELODIES IN DANCE RHYTHMS) and has ORHESTRA listed on the gatefold sleeve as a performer. Researches revealed that instrumental cover versions are performed by the band with the name (according to various sources) Mexicali Banditos or Torero Band.
